Little Bighorn Cavalry Encampment & Battle Reenactment June 15-23, 2019

Eight days of learning the lessons of a cavalry trooper, firing the weapons of the period, and riding the ground that the Cavalry covered the last 90 minutes of Major General (Brevet) George Armstrong Custer's life and the Seventh Cavalry troopers that rode into the history books with him.

Orientation starts Saturday night the 15th of June. This course also includes participating in the Battle Reenactment of the Little Bighorn at 1 pm on 21, 22, and 23 June 2019 with authentic Indian Braves.

You will camp and ride on this sacred land, where a portion of the battle was fought, joins and is intermingled within Little Bighorn Battlefield Park and only an hour south of Billings, Mt.

This amazing package includes the cost of tuition, training fees, meals, Cavalry encampment accommodations, lectures by Indian and U.S. Military subject matter experts, awe-inspiring Battlefield tour and educational "Staff Ride" (in the training manner we teach the U.S. Army). Firearms, horse, uniform, and tack rentals available. Choose from our beginner or advanced level classes.
